AMONG AMATEUR ATHLETES

Features of the Knickerbockers' May 30 Games.

An All-Around Weight-Throwing ball Record-Dumbarton Country Club-Corcorans' Buseball Team.

It is unfortunate that the Knickerbooker Athletic Club track and field games are to be held upon the same day -May 30-for which the intercollegiate championship meet at Mott Flaven is fixed. While the entrants to the former games could not compete in the collegiate meet, many from the latter would be ng the contestants at the Knickerbocker grounds at Bergen Point.

It is a big holiday and as each of these caders of big divisions of amateur athletics has a large following, one will not letract from the other in attendance, but the circumstance of date will simply prevent the cracks from the two coming together in the beginning of the senson, nd demonstrating their rejative speed, skill, and endurance.

The Knickerbockers will this time introduce a feature in the way of an allaround weight throwing competition. Every contestant is expected to compete in all the weight events and the results in each event will form the totals which will determine the championship. Of course the best total of points decides the winner of the novel championship, the first of its kind ever held for this class of events which includes: Throwing sixteen-pound hammer, putting the shot, throwing fifty-six-pound weight, and throwing the discus. This competition will bring together such great weight men as Flanagan, Sheldon, Sheridan, De-Witt, and Edgren, a quintette not very often seen at the same games.

ATHLETICS AT Y. M. C. A. The backetball and Indoor baseball teams of the Young Men's Christian Association have had a very successful secasion have had a very successful season and the players as well as Physi-cal Instructors Rideout and Beckett are justly proud of a long string of victories. Eleven games won and two lost and one a tie is the splendid record of the season. Following is the list of games played and the scores, the winning team appear-ing first:

The last game was a tie at the end of egular time and the locals lost on the Great preparations are being made for the track and field games to be held Max 25. If all the entries materialize that have been promised by out-of-town associations and chubs, the management will feel justified in putting it down as the largest and bear meet it has ever held. Baltimore and Philadelphia will seep especially large lists. From the former city entries will come from Johns Hopkins, Young Men's Christian Association, Maryland College, Maryland Athlete Club, Druid Outing Club, and Western Maryland College.

Inter-scholastic handleap-180-yard dash, 200-yard dash, 480-yard run, 880-yard run, high-school relay, inter-scholastic relay, putting 12-pound shot, and throwing 12-pound hammer.

It is hoped that the annual relay race between the Baitimore Western Branch, Young Men's Christian Association, and the locals can be arranged. These events always stir up a lot of enthusiasm and prove not only exciting but decidedly interesting.

CORCORAN CADET CORPS.

Capt. E. C. Edwards will shortly call a meeting of the Corcoran Cadeta, or rather of the members interested in baseball and talk over the prospects of organizing a team for the season. If it is decided not to put a team in the field this sca-son then it is likely that the Corps will sell its complete buseball outfit at once. There are a number of members who want to see a team in the field and if their motion prevails games will at one be arranged with the Young Men's Chris tian Association and Eastern Athletic Club, Marines, and other local teams and Club, Marines, and other local teams and with the Baltimore Young Men's Christian League team for July 4, which has given the Cadets an option on that date.

A very strong team can be selected from among the following: Herfiner and Walters, catchers, Infehart and Boyle, pitchers, Godey, McGlue, Handiboe, Watters, Barsholt, Pearson, Haywood, Mastin, and Denovan, infielders, Zell, Lent, Moriarty, Chick, and Vogt, cutfielders, Eherman, catcher of last mason's team.

Recently the management, always catering to the pleasure of the members, provided a baseball field and the work of hying out the diamond is about completed. Last week candidates for the team took up practice and as soon as the positions are satisfactorily filled games will be arranged with local and out-of-town teams, which includes that of the Catonsville Country Club of Baltimore, a similar organization to that of the Dumbarton.

The club now has about 500 members, indice and gentlemen, and it is traly a representative membership. In addition to physical culture and field sports, literature and music are objects of the organization. The officers of the club are: President, William A. Gordon; vice president, Downs L. Wilson, C. S. N.; secretary, R. C. Powell, and treasurer, Harry C. Towers.

GEORGETOWN VARSITY ATHLETES,

On next Saturday afternoon the Athleti sociation of Georgetown University will old its annual handicap track and field old its annual handicap track and field ames. A successful meet is assured, as I. J. Thompson, who had charge of the idoor meet at Convention Hall on March last will have this affair in hand. There will be seven events, and gold and leer medals will be given respectively to rest and second men. A large number of stries are promised by the big colleges and second men. A large number of stries are promised by the big colleges and schools. The local high schools will enter teams out for the inter-scholastic and open vents. Prof. Foley has taken considerable interest in his leisure moments in the evelopment of high school athletics, and specially is this so in the case of the Centals, whose relay toam won as handsomer at the recent Pennsylvania relay carnial.

These games will serve the purpose, to a large extent, of deciding whether or not the "blue and grey" will be represented by a feam at the games in the Stadiums, at Buffalo, next month. All the candidates for the team and aspirants for hunors in these games are working hard and Frof. Bill Foley has several squads out each day. out each day.

Captain Duffy, the holder of several world's sprint records, is in his usual good condition, and running in fine form. He hopes to at least equal the world's 9 4-5 seconds 109-yards record at next Satur-seconds 100-yards record at next Saturday's games.

Helland is going well, and is counted on to win the quarter-mile run, although Owens, Lynch, Edmonston, and Reilly are clipping it off at this distance at a rate that is astonishing all hands.

In the field events it has not been decided who will be entered. M. J. Waish, the clever left-fielder of the basebalt team, has in the past two or three years carried off most of the honors in the jumping and weight events and may again try his hand—and feet. Cox, Owens, and Murphy may be found among the competitors. The events will include: 100-yard dash, 200-yard dash, 400-yard run, 830-yard run, 100-yard shot, 100-yard shot, 100-yard shot, 100-yard gash, 100

The course was a two mile straightaway, starting at a buoy off Greenberry Point, and finishing at a buoy opposite the naval cemetery. The cours opposite the naval cemetery. The course was lined with boats of every description.

The race between the varsity and first crew of the cadets started at 3 o'clock. The cadets soon forged ahead and half way over the course the cadets had a lead of over two lengths. Here Pennsylvania made a beautiful spurt, coming in at the failsh E.y. feet ahead. The official time was: Pennsylvania, 19:32, Navy, 1e.24. In the race between the Pennsylvania. In the race between the Pennsylvania freshmen and the second crew, the freshmen won by over two boat lengths. When halfway the course both boats were even, but here the cadets' washboard hecame disabled and the water filled the boat until it reached the sants. Pennsylvania was also disabled near the finish by Catheart breaking an oar.

NEW HAVEN, May II.—The Harvard-Yale dual meet at Yale Fleid today was close and exciting from beginning to end, so much so that not until the last event of the day was decided was it possible to say which would prove the winner. Yale wan by 57 to 17.

The last event was the pole vault, and when it was reached the score stood 49 for Yale and 47 for Harvard. It was plain that If Harvard took first place in this event Yale could only it the score, while again. Harvard might win by scoring 6 points. Yale is followers were moderately certain that Hord, of Yale, would win the event, but the many surprises of the day engendered a feeling of doubt. Although the pole tradit result was pleasing to Yale it was bett the less a surprise, Yale is three entries dividing the honors. Prior to this Boale, of Harvard, who has been throwing the ilepound hammer 16 feet at home, had a chance to the the score for Harvard, but he fouled twice, and then only made 125 feet in his one fair throw.

Surprises were the order of the day, Yale in upoets begin early in the day, and plunged her "rooters" into doubt and gloom, but Harvard had her share of up-sets later.

feated the Boston team 3 to 2 here tofay by scoring three runs in the first Quim's timely double. After that Lewis settled down to some fine work. holding the Senators to two singles and two bases on balls in the next eight

The Bostons were unable to overcome Washington's lead, although they made several rallies. In the second inning Collins scored on his own single and Freeman's double, after which the latter was caught napping at second base and given out in a close decision. This so angered "Buck" that he went after the umpire, and, being a bit too strenuous in his protest of the decision, was ordered from the game. Parent followed immediately with a single, so that Freeman's little mistake cost the nome team at least a tie score. Boston's second run was made in the fifth inning on a double by Ferris and two long flies. With one out in the eighth Dowd hit for two bases, but was prevented from scoring by superb fieldng by Joe Quinn, and in the ninth oughlin made a phenomenal one-hand umping catch of a liner from Collins that was marked for at least three

A BASEBALL SQUEEZE. The Johns Hopkins Nine Long on Er

rors But Short on Runs. Nine beseball players from Johns Hopkins University, each with an overdevel oped propensity for making errors, me the Georgetown team yesterday afternoo on Georgetown Field and barely escape a shut-out. At the end of seven ennings the appearance of clouds as dark as the game was slow caused the few speciators to scurry home in hopes of avoiding the impending shower.

Georgetown's players hit the hall when-ever they felt like it in the early part of

of the generally prevalent panicky feei-ing, a number of substitutes were sent in and the game became more like a normal Johns Hopkins made but a single scratch hit. Dowling made a homer and O'Hara a triple. The appended score shows just how bad it was:
